Lynn Armour posted:

My mother was a penpal of Mrs. Romano. I grew up looking at pictures of the family as they were added to our family album and enjoyed the cards and letters received. So sorry for your loss and we will certainly miss the Cards at Christmas. We knew with certainty how special each of Mrs. Romano's family members were to her and how she lived to share special events with us. Mama has been a penpal since she was twelve. She is now 89:
