He was a awesome dad. He was there for me when I was getting older and there for me during the sad times. Nothing lasts forever but neither will pain or his memory.

Stevie and Lori Hurse were our first friends. My sister Leslie, brother James and I would spend hours playing at their house in the basement while our parents played cards and talked upstairs. We all grew up together. As we approached adulthood I lost touch with Stevie. His sister Lori lives in the Chicagoland area as do I. We both worked in the Loop years ago, and she had told me he lived in Hawaii... I was shocked and saddened to learn he died. May his soul find eternal life and rest in Heaven with The Father. My family's thoughts and prayers continue for Sharon and Lori as they move through their period of mourning.

I have fond memories of my good friend although I have not talked to him in years I will always remember him . Words cannot express what I felt when I heard the news. I wish I could have known him as a father and husband, I know he was great at being the best at those two achievements. Growing up in our little block of East Empire in Benton Harbor when we played together and he never lost no matter what game we played. Lori and Sharon, you both will always share space upon my heart and I will continue to pray that God will strengthen and keep you always especially during this time.
