Russell was a kind and funny gentleman. I met him through the hot rod car circuit about 7 years ago. We could laugh about anything and as his health got bad, I would pick him up and take him out. We would still be laughing and talking story, mostly about cars. I know that he is in heaven because we discussed his faith in Jesus Christ and the holy trinity. God bless his family, I will miss our cruising time together as well as our cheat days for lunch, French fries with gravy.
