I just ran across this obituary. I worked for "the boss" in 1965-66. Had some great times handing out great service (check oil, check air, wash windows etc) and driving the tow truck (very fun for a 17-year-old) and "talking" to the officers and taxi drivers who would stop in to visit. I loved the Holmes Ford wrecker, but I "broke" the old Willis truck one Saturday night and had to be "towed" back to the station. The station was very popular with the wrecked cars being spread out by the highway as a warning to all. My condolences go out to the family for their loss.
