Kathy Fitzpatrick Owens posted:

My big sister -- we were very close as little girls.Â Had lots of fun going to Waikiki with our Tutu and Api. Going to see Elvis Presley at the old Honolulu Stadium on King Street back in the early 1950s, and screaming with excitement. Sharon devoted her adult years to her children and grandchildren, was a very generous friend to others, and took little time to herself. She suffered so long with such pain, and now she's gone far too soon and her large family still needs her, and they know how much she loved each of them.Â Â
