This is very belated as I just learned of Dave's passing. In the mid to late 70's I worked at Bay Area Controls as a sub contractor to Dillingham Shipyard where Dave was a ship superintendent. We became good friends and even bought a boat together. Dave, his son Wayne and I would fish offshore together. In 79 I was dismissed from my job and relocated back to California and subsequently lost contact with Dave. One of my fond memories of Dave was one Thanksgiving my wife prepared a traditional turkey dinner with the usual trimmings and we had Dave over. Shortly after we sat down I noticed Dave looking for something and I asked him what he was looking for. He replied "where's the rice". Belated condolences to Dave's friends and family.
