I'm so sorry to hear of Vincent's passing. He was always so kind whenever I had to read his meter. Last month, when I had called him, he was making a run to Walmart to grab some milk. He ended up coming back without the milk just so that I wouldn't be waiting around, so that he could secure (more like chase) his dog. At that time, I remember him saying that it was a good thing I came that day cause he was flying out to the Big Island the next day for his father. When I had done my "call day before" yesterday, I was a little worried because both contact numbers were not in service. So today, as I was passing by to read the meter I was overcome with sadness. But I thought of him and his friendly smile and all the times he kept yelling at his dog. All bark, he'd say. He was a man of humor, and just plain down to earth as I knew him. My sincere condolences to your family during this time.
