Noah was a former student of Mrs. Sakurai's class and "Mr Ed" was his educational assistant. Mr Ed was so good with his students and Noah just LOVED being with him. We all sensed the care, sincerity and genuine love for his students. When Noah was in the hospital at one time, Mr Ed visited Noah after a surgery and was there for the recovery process . He tried to wake Noah up by saying "hey Noah , you have to get up so you and eat chi-chicken...(that's how noah would pronounce chicken). We will forever be grateful for him. God Bless you "Mr Ed" and may you rest in peace! Love you always and forever ~~~ Noah Lorenzo and ohana.

Frances, Karen and Mae.....I am so sad to learn of Ed's passing. We met back in 1968 In Vietnam in the 101st Airborne Division and have always stayed in touch over these almost 50 yrs. I really thought that he would beat the cancer....he was a tough, little guy. I will never forget his smile....Ed always lightened up the mood, no matter how difficult or stressful the time. I loved him and will always the memories we had in Nam and the times me and my family visited with him in Hawaii and his visit to Boston..... Although most of our communications were by pen.....and more recently email....we stayed in touch and made each other smile. It was because of Ed, when we last met in Hawaii that my kids wanted to know why Ed had a Veteran plate and I didn't....well it goes without saying, once I returned home I applied for and have had a Veteran Plate since then.. Every time I look at my license plate I think back to our last visit with him.Wow...I could go on and on...but I really am upset right now and must stop writing. Karen thanks so much for your note....I was just thinking about Ed this weekend said I must call to see how he is doing...and then I received your note in today's mail. My email address is: joeinsurance@yahoo.com and my home number is 781.792.0011...please forward me your email address and home number so that I may contact you.Always, Joe Bellantoni

I am so very sorry for your loss. Please find comfort in God's sure promise of a resurrection as set forth in the Bible. (Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29) Those who are raised to life will have the prospect of never again being subject to misery, sickness, or death. (Revelation 21:4) I hope that reflecting on these thoughts will give you some relief during this difficult time.

To: The Nakamura Family. Please accept my sincere condolences. May you find comfort in God's word the Bible. At Psalms 94:19 "When anxieties overwhelmed me, You comforted and soothed me." The loss of a love one is overwhelming, may the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3) sooth your anxiety, pain and sorrow. May the hope and promises in these Scripture bring you comfort and strength to endure the difficult days ahead.
