I serves time with Jamie at Maple Lane. We were on the same forestry crew. One thing about him is he had a great sense of humor. Sad to hear of his passing. My condolences.

Jamie, as I sit here and still have a very hard time absorbing the fact that that you are gone... I now see that your beautiful Daughter is gone too... I lost my Mom a year ago, I'm sure you are aware already, since then I've had a really rough time living in general, it feels like a big part of my heart went with her when she went... I am devastated to learn about Leilani, you and Dawn and your children have over the years became family, and I just am in shock. I know it didn't happen just last week, however it feels like it jist happened fpr because it did. I only just found out just a few minutes ago, I am ashamed that I didn't know when she actually went... I spoke to her when you went, she was very upset and deeply saddened. I wished I could have been closer to console her in person, but as you know we all live states apart and I was thrilled that you were taken Home to HI, for your burial, however I wasn't able .to .attend, you know I'm very spiritual and know you can hear this, my heart just completely breaks for Dawn as she has lost so many now, and now her own Daughter, how.unfair, how sad, and i cannot even imagine the pain she goes through daily because of these losses. She has been through so much in this.life, when is enough? She deserves a break, try to put in a good word for her, I know she could use it. and I want you to know i will miss you all, my Friends/Family forever. I Love you all, take care of each other up there, I bet you and my Dad have reunited again already and now my Mom. Give them.all a loving hug from me Jamie, love always,your Friend/FamilySunshine Kvistad-Anderson
