So sorry for your loss! It's our loss too. We left the Philippines when I was a baby. During my early childhood, I saw pictures of Auntie Lina and couldn't believe how much she looked like my mom. They looked like twins! When I was 7 yrs old, we finally went back to the Philippines. I met Lola and all the other relatives. Auntie Lina quickly became my FAVORITE auntie because she always had candies in her pocket AND she owned a little store that was stocked with candies and snacks. I have so many wonderful memories of that trip. Rest in peace, Auntie Lina. Fly with the angels. Cynthia Bumanglag Bocoboc
