I miss you mom. There is not a day I don't think about you. I miss you everyday, Now that you're gone, I realize that everyone I have ever let get close to me in my life would have had to know you on a personal level. Now that you're gone I realize how much I see you in everything around me. Now that your gone I have a different perspective on life. Now that you're gone I have realized I have gotten stronger. Humble but fearless. Something that I have received from you.

My fondest memory of my beautiful mother is the very missed talks we have had. Her voice is both an humbling and encouraging frequency. Her words is wisdom that can calm me and light a fire simultaneously. I'm glad to have told her she is beautiful to me. I wish I told her that everyday. I love you mom. Love, Chad
