Our Lady of Good Counsel (OLGC) in Pearl City, sharing her gift of music with all who entered the sanctuary.

Evelyn lived her faith through her actions, embodying the Christian principles of love and service. Her hands, so often caressing the keys of the piano and organ, were also extended in aid to anyone in need. Her love for live music, travel, and the joy of discovery were facets of her vibrant spirit, but it was her family that remained her paramount joy.

Evelyn's life was a symphony of loving, generous, and kind acts that created a melody of goodwill resonating in the hearts of those she encountered. Her smile was a universal language that transcended words and brought comfort and joy to all. As a motivational speaker inspires their audience to reach for their best selves, Evelyn's life story encourages us to cultivate love, prioritize family, and spread kindness in our daily lives.
