Diane and I were friends for about 80 years. We grew up in a small town and went through several grades together before her family moved to California.We played together and spent many Friday evenings listening to " InnerSanctum" with our brothers.Although we lived an ocean apart, we talked on the phone and our conversations sounded as tho we saw each other just yesterday.I lost a very special friend. I loved her and will miss her always.Blessings to you Lloyd and to her family who she loved completely.
