Mr. Santos, what can I say, he was a tough man with a bright heart. I will never forget when I asked for LeAnne's hand in marriage. He was rough told me he would never see her again if that happened, said if you take her she is not allowed back home. I told him I promised that would never happen and that she would be able to see her wherever and whenever. Then he waved his hand said go and brushed me away. At first I was feeling a little bothered by that and I was determined but then again I understood. The love he had for LeAnne, his first and only daughter was just a love you can't describe in words. He had a huge heart especially when it came to her. She was the most kind hearted and loving person to him no matter what she said. She took care of him and she knew that that love and bond was unbreakable. The next day, I he called me over told me that he changed his mind and that he wants to give me his blessing. I was thankful and grateful for this as he looked at me and gave me a handshake and a hug and said love you. Again rough on the outside but a big heart on the inside. One other memory I will share is the very first time I met him. He was a little more active at this time and he was moving a bit more. Now when I met them this was about 6-8 months that LeAnne and I was dating and she had shown me a very sensitive side of her that I have never seen from anyone before. So, her mom brought out photos of LeAnne and her brothers as kids and baby's and he started crying. At first I felt like oh is he okay and both Leanne and Mrs Santos start Laughing and I was genuinely concerned but they told me that they are used to this and he does that all the time. I was like oh man this is where Leanne gets it from this is where her sensitive side comes from. Again another bond that is just unbreakable. Thank you Mr. Santos for everything. You made me feel like part of your family and for that I will be forever grateful. You also raised the most amazing, kind and funny person that I know in LeAnne. May your Rest in Peace.

Never met Ronald however I have gotten to know his daughter LeAnne as my personal trainer and it is clear that Ronald loved his children and he did a great job of instilling good morals and values into LeAnne. My deepest condolences and love to uncle □. I've knew him since I was a little kid in elementary since I am very good friends with his daughter Leanne. I always remember him picking us up from school and taking us places. He was always telling us stories about how he grew up and always gave us life advice. He was like a second dad to me when I was younger. I miss him very deeply. I love you uncle!
