In Loving Memory of my Beautiful Momma Corning, My Mama BearMom, you've left a mark on all our hearts that time will never fade. You were a devoted wife, a loving mother, and a woman of strong faith who taught us how to love, to pray, and to give. I remember your kindness, and the way you called everyone "handsome" or "beautiful" whenever you forget to say their names... You also loved to talk... and I mean really talk... about anything and everything. Sometimes I'd get a little annoyed from you, but now I'd give anything just to hear your voice again. I'll forever cherish our early morning church, walking together during my childhood... your homemade cascarron and andagi that everyone's favorite, and the way you prayed over me every time I asked... even when the dementia starts to take your memory, I would ask you to pray for me... and somehow, you always found the words. That was the power of your faith, and the love of a mother that never faded. You decorated my life with love and I'll carry your colors forever... Your love was the most beautiful painting of my life.. And I thank God every day for blessing me with you as my mom. I know you're now in heaven, reunited with Papa, my two other brothers, Lolo's, Lala's and your brothers and sister, smiling with that same sparkle in your eyes. Until we meet again, I'll hold on to your love and your prayers that still live in my heart. ❤️ #loveyoualways #restinpeaceinheaven#mayperpetuallightshineuponyou
