Jaden Guerrero lit a candle in honor of Luke.

I'm am one of the great grandsons of Luke Tamayo I still remember the times with him I only got to know him for a year but that was the best time to know about him he sang, read, and kept on getting better I would remember after I got out of school my parents told me we were going to the apartment I was always excited but now that he's gone I will miss him but he will be in my heart he was the only thing I could ask for if I got one wish I would want one day with him
