Elizabeth Reyes Dela Cruz

AUG 1, 1940 - FEB 24, 2026

Elizabeth was born in Honolulu, Hawai‘i, where she was raised with strong values of family, love, and community. She graduated from Farrington High School and carried those lessons with her throughout her life. Elizabeth was known for her caring heart and generous spirit. She loved sewing and enjoyed cooking meals that brought family and friends together. Her kitchen was often filled with the aroma of home-cooked food and the laughter of loved ones gathered around. Preparing food for others was one of the many ways she shared her love.

Above all, Elizabeth cherished her ‘ohana. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend whose presence brought comfort and joy to those around her. Her warmth, kindness, and quiet strength touched many lives and created memories that will be treasured forever.

In her later years, Elizabeth faced the challenges of dementia. Though the illness changed many things over time, it never changed the love her family had for her or the beautiful memories she created throughout her life.

Elizabeth’s legacy lives on through the generations of family who carry forward the love and lessons she shared. Her memory and love will remain in our hearts forever.
